SHADOW PLAY

Cristina Ortiz deviated from the fashion world to indulge in her inner jeweller. Her first collection features pieces inspired from a 'distant world' and is dedicated to self-confident individuals, described as a 'delicate balance of light enchantment and dark mystery'. This ring made with rose gold and adorned with brown diamonds, envelopes the finger and is meant to act as sensual armour. www.cristinaortiz.com

Bonhams' Hong Kong Fine Jewellery and Jadeite Auction will be held on 21 May at the new Bonhams Hong Kong gallery, which imitates its London headquarters on Bond street. The focus of the room is on its new technology, better lighting, bigger space and its multi-purpose usage. Out of 175 lots available for auction on that day, a key lot includes a 5.13 ct fancy pink diamond ring. www.bonhams.com

Jewellers' Playground

BLOOD THIRSTY

Born and bred in a land full of superstitions and myths, Greek Elé Karela translates her background and stories into jewellery. Her creations revolve around the intriguing and mysterious, evident in her latest Myths collection. Her Dragon ear cuff in 18k pink gold imitates the webbed wings of the creature and is worn most interestingly from one's lobe to helix. www.elekarela.com

Beneath the Surface

Architectural designer Zaha Hadid lends her magic touch to jewellery design, teaming up with Swiss jewellery house, Caspita. The Skein collection is inspired by cellular structures found in nature, which simultaneously goes hand-in-hand with Caspita's definition of 'seeing the invisible'. Made with lattice in filigree, the rings are available in black, yellow, white and pink gold. www.zaha-hadid.com | www.caspita.ch

Oil & Water

Art and science are presented to us through Nautilus Carboniferous, created by Atelier Hg. Combining the skills of renowned international goldsmiths, artisans and professors, Atelier Hg serves as a platform for its two founders to explore research and free thought. The brooch is constructed out of carbon fibre, palladium and 18k gold, and is topped with a Tahitian pearl and a paraiba tourmaline. www.atelierhg.com
